My Dear Sir

Green paper of the 3rd inst - received to day I regret that the matter in question has straged so. I have been away from home since Apr. 1st etc. I would had a statement in your hands, long ago. I expect to be relieved from the care of this property, very soon Then, I will at once, write the matter up & send you - I sincerely hope, that you have secured, the genuine bird - I sold, it, to Thomas Hill, the artist, who maintained a studio at Wauwana, for a number of years - he was Clarence Washburn's Grand Father. I suppose the skin was in his possession. When he died - hoping to be able to send you a detailed account, of the bagging, of that old silver tip Griggy - in the near future -

I beg to remain, Most Sincerely Yours

C. D. Willman
