

Here are the samples that we are sending to you tomorrow via Fed Ex. Will probably arrive on Wednesday.

Samples that were gathered on Jan 10, 2015. The purple tops were refrigerated, but not put into cryovials. The serum was placed into cryovials and frozen.

Also sending serum samples that were taken Oct 31, 2014. They were frozen after placed cryovials.

Lastly some serum samples that were taken Jan13, 2014. These may have been thawed twice prior to shipping and after collection. Feel free to toss any sample that you do not feel are good.
